ABA 10 Principles and Public Defender Workload

In 2023, the American Bar Association enacted the Revised 10 Principles of a Public Defense Delivery System, updating its core standards on the needs of modern public defense systems.

The following month, the RAND Corporation – in collaboration with the ABA Standing Committee on Legal Aid and Indigent Defense, the National Center for State Courts, and nationally recognized indigent defense expert Stephen Hanlon – published the National Public Defense Workload Study (NPDWS).

This session will provide the PA Indigent Defense Advisory Committee and other interested stakeholders with:

- Background on these two important developments in public defense.
- An overview of their content.
- Information about how these resources are utilized in the public defense community.

Webinar is not mandatory to attend; a recording will be shared via e-mail afterward.
