You may have a right to legal counsel during your probation review process. If you wish to have an attorney but cannot afford one, you must SUBMIT AN APPLICATION along with PROOF OF INCOME to the Washington County Public Defender's Office.

If you would like an appointed attorney to file an objection or response to the recommendations of Washington County Adult Probation, you must submit your application to the Public Defender's Office within (3) weeks of the date of the probation termination status report that is included with this letter.

Visit washingtontcopa.gov/public-defender or the address listed above to obtain an application. Applications with proof of income may be mailed, delivered in person, faxed (724-250-6516), or emailed (public.defender@co.washington.pa.us) to our office. Please feel free to call the number listed at the top of this page if you have any questions.
